THE LOWITJA INSTITUTE
INTERNATIONAL INDIGENOUS HEALTH AND WELLBEING
CONFERENCE 2019
18–20 JUNE, DARWIN, AUSTRALIA

THINKING
BEING
FIRST NATIONS SOLUTIONS
FOR GLOBAL CHANGE
The Lowitja Institute is Australia’s national institute for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health research. It is an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisation working for the health and wellbeing of Australia’s First Peoples through high impact quality research, knowledge translation, and by supporting a new generation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health researchers.

Established in January 2010, the Lowitja Institute operates on key principles of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander control of the research agenda, a broader understanding of health that incorporates wellbeing, and the need for the work to have a clear and positive impact.

The Lowitja Institute hosts the Lowitja Institute Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health CRC funded by the Cooperative Research Centres Programme of the Australian Government Department of Industry, Innovation and Science.

The Lowitja Institute is a company limited by guarantee with the following membership:
Australian Indigenous Doctors’ Association • Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies • Central Australian Aboriginal Congress • Congress of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Nurses and Midwives • Danila Dilba Health Service • Flinders University • Healing Foundation • Indigenous Allied Health Australia • Menzies School of Health Research • National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Worker Association • QIMR Berghofer Medical Research Institute • The University of Melbourne

Our Patron, Dr Lowitja O’Donoghue AC CBE DSG

Dr Lowitja O’Donoghue was born in 1932 at Indulkana, in north-west corner South Australia, to a Pitjantjatjara mother and an Irish father. At the age of two, she and two of her sisters were taken away from their mother on behalf of South Australia’s Aboriginal Protection Board.

In 1954, Dr O’Donoghue became the first Aboriginal trainee nurse at the Royal Adelaide Hospital where she became charge sister. Following a period in India in the mid-1960s, she returned to Australia and resumed what became a distinguished career of advocacy and achievement for the rights of Australia’s First Peoples. Among her many awards, she was the first Aboriginal woman to be awarded an Order of Australia (AO) in 1976, was made a Companion of the Order of Australia (AC) in 1999, a Commander of the Order of the British Empire (CBE) in 1983, and Australian of the Year in 1984, during which time she became the first Aboriginal person to address the United Nations General Assembly. She was named a National Living Treasure in 1998.

Dr O’Donoghue holds a number of honorary fellowships and doctorates and a professorial fellowship. She was the inaugural Chair of the Cooperative Research Centre for Aboriginal and Tropical Health (1996–2003). In 2010, she gifted her name to the Lowitja Institute.

Through a chance meeting, she was reunited with her mother, Lily, in the mid-1960s.
ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF COUNTRY

The Lowitja Institute respectfully acknowledges the Larrakia Nation, the Traditional Owners of the land on which this conference is held.

The Lowitja Institute is grateful for the opportunity to meet in this place for their generous welcome.

There will be a Welcoming Ceremony on Monday 17 June 2019
WELCOME

Our aspiration is that the event will be a place where respectful, provocative conversations can take place about what concerns us today, and what our vision and ambitions are for future generations.

We would like these conversations to explore new ways of thinking, speaking and being in the world, serve who we are, promote new ideas, and take a planetary approach. We want to facilitate opportunities for deep thought, for learning from each other, and for planning future action.

As an Indigenous space, we want the conference to be an environment where we come together to support each other, where we welcome our non-Indigenous colleagues, and where discussions can be had in safety.

In this United Nations International Year of Indigenous Languages, the conference theme — Thinking, Speaking, Being: First Nations solutions for global change — highlights the importance of language in enabling empowerment, cultural strength, wellbeing, and identity.

The theme also reminds delegates and presenters to consider the global implications of their work, to highlight the role of First Nations people in leading change, and to showcase Indigenous solutions. It frames First Nations people as the guardians and stewards of the solutions for many of the complex issues and mega trends that affect them.

I extend my personal thanks to keynote speakers, panellists, presenters and their co-authors for their contribution to this comprehensive scientific program. Thank you too to the Organising, Scientific and Cultural committees, and to the Lowitja Institute conference working party for their untiring work.

I also extend my gratitude to the conference sponsors. Successful organisations are concerned about equity, about the environment, and demonstrate their social responsibility. We welcome their partnership with this event.

By holding this conference in Darwin, the Lowitja Institute honours its origins, which date to 1997, when the Cooperative Research Centre for Aboriginal and Tropical Health was established. As many will know the Lowitja Institute CRC finishes on 30 June and the Lowitja Institute itself continues from 1 July 2019.

Above all, Indigenous leaders the world over simultaneously honour and are responsible to our ancestors, while being true to ourselves in the present, and investing in our future. We are thriving, not just surviving.
The Organisation Committee for The Lowitja Institute International Indigenous Health and Wellbeing Conference 2019 acknowledges with gratitude the generous support received from the following sponsors.

Please note that the program may change due unforeseen circumstances. However, an up-to-the-minute, interactive electronic version will be available from our website: www.conference2019.lowitja.org.au
The conference is being held on the lands of the Larrakia Nation and, to start the proceedings, Elders representing the local custodians will provide a Welcome to Country followed by a cultural performance from One Mob Different Country. This welcome will be part of a Welcoming Ceremony which includes a cultural exchange and a performance from local singer songwriter Warren Corowa.

Light refreshments will be served.

THECONFERENCE LOGO

The design, by Aboriginal creative services agency Carbon Media, is strong, contemporary and universal and is based on fire, the talking circle and Lowitja Institute colours. It represents the purpose of the conference to be a creative, powerful, and collaborative space to share knowledge and spark discussions, debates, ideas and solutions.
EXHIBITION FLOORPLAN

Poster sessions will be held in the concourse.

POSTERS, EXHIBITION AND MARKET STALLS WILL BE AVAILABLE THROUGHOUT THE CONFERENCE.
MR PETER YU

Peter Yu is a Yawuru man from Broome in the Kimberley region in North West Australia with over 35 years’ experience in Indigenous development and advocacy in the Kimberley and at the state, national and international level. Peter was a key negotiator on behalf of the Yawuru Native Title Holders with the Western Australian State Government over the 2010 Yawuru Native Title Agreement and is the current Chief Executive Officer of the Yawuru Corporate Group. He has been an advocate for the social, cultural and economic advancement and well-being of Kimberley and other Aboriginal communities for his entire career. He has been instrumental in the development of many community-based organisations and initiatives which have had an enduring influence on the Kimberley region. He was Executive Director of the Kimberley Land Council during the 1990s and had a national leadership role negotiating the Federal Government’s response to the 1992 Mabo High Court judgement on Native Title.

He is currently the Chair for the Indigenous Reference Group (IRG) to the Northern Ministerial Forum, Chair of the North Australian Indigenous Land and Sea Management Alliance Ltd (NAILSMA), Deputy Chair of the AFL Aboriginal Advisory Committee, Deputy Chair of Broome Futures Alliance Ltd, Council Member of the Governing Board of the Australian National University and Committee Member for the Western Australian Aboriginal Water and Environment Advisory Group.

PROFESSOR TAHU KUKUTAI

Tahu Kukutai (Ngāti Tipa, Ngāti Kinohaku, Te Aupōuri) is Professor of Demography at the National Institute of Demographic and Economic Analysis, The University of Waikato. Tahu specialises in Māori and Indigenous demographic research and has written extensively on issues of Māori population change, Māori identity, wellbeing and official statistics.

Tahu is a founding member of the Māori Data Sovereignty Network Te Mana Raraunga (https://www.temanararaunga.maori.nz) that advocates for Māori rights and interests in data. She is also Co-Chair of the Research Data Alliance International Indigenous Data Sovereignty Interest Group and co-edited (with John Taylor) Indigenous Data Sovereignty: Toward an Agenda (free download: https://press.anu.edu.au). Tahu has undertaken research with and for numerous iwi (tribes), Māori communities, and Government agencies, and provided strategic advice across a range of sectors. Recently she was appointed to the Census 2018 External Data Quality Panel and the Child Wellbeing Strategy Reference Group that is informing the development of the New Zealand Government’s first child wellbeing strategy. Tahu has degrees in History, Demography and Sociology from the University of Waikato and Stanford University. She was previously a journalist.
DR JULIA KIM

Julia Kim is a public health researcher and global health and sustainable development specialist who has worked extensively in Africa, and Asia with NGOs, academia and UN agencies. At UNDP and UNICEF in New York, she led global teams focused on addressing cross-cutting health and development issues including gender, violence, HIV and socio-economic inequalities. She is currently the Program Director of the Gross National Happiness Centre Bhutan a national NGO which aims to apply the principles and practices of GNH, Bhutan's unique development approach, through action in the spheres of health and wellbeing, business, education, and civil society. GNH views health as being profoundly interconnected to eight other domains (e.g. Community Vitality, Time Use, Cultural Diversity & Resilience) and aims to measure these at the national level.

Julia holds degrees from Cornell University and the University of Manitoba, and is a Specialist in Internal Medicine and Community-Oriented Primary Care (Tufts University) as well as Public Health in Developing Countries (London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine).

MR BRUCE MEALOHA BLANKENFELD

Bruce Blankenfeld became involved with the Polynesian Voyaging Society (PVS) in 1977 by volunteering on Hōkūle‘a training sails and with construction and repair of the wa’a kaulua in drydock. SOCIAL MEDIA GUIDELINES
Twitter handle is @LowitjaInstitute
Twitter # is #LowitjaConf2019
Instagram is @lowitja_institute

We respectfully request that, if attendees engage in social media during the conference, the following conditions are noted and abided by:

• During the conference, many of our speakers will be presenting exciting novel research that is not yet published. While the Institute has an active social media presence, we respect the speakers’ right to request that their work not be shared across social media.

• All talks are ‘bloggable’ and ‘tweetable’ by default, but speakers can explicitly request that certain talks, slides, or findings be left out of the social media conversation. The session chairs will provide clear instructions at the beginning of each talk to highlight any such speaker requests.

• Recording or reproducing audio, video, or photos of any content presented at oral or poster sessions within the conference and distributing this content without the presenter’s permission is strictly prohibited.

• Do not use rude and profane language or engage in slander or personal attacks across social media platforms.

• The Lowitja Institute staff and/or any contracted suppliers should abide by the Institute’s key social media rules, as follows:

  Do not post material on social media that:
  - provokes ill feeling towards Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
  - brings the Lowitja Institute, its partners, stakeholders or staff into disrepute
  - provokes ill feeling towards the Lowitja Institute
  - negatively affects your work relationships or work in any way
  - makes the Lowitja Institute vulnerable to charges of breaches of copyright, defamation, harassment and bullying.

DISCLAIMER
The hosts, organisers, venue and participating society is not responsible for, or represented by, the opinions expressed by participants in either the sessions or their written abstracts. Responsibility for the literary and scientific content of abstracts accepted for publication remains with the authors and their sponsoring institutions. Acceptance by the Lowitja Institute for publication does not imply any acceptance by the Institute of responsibility.

MOBILE PHONES AND PAGERS
Please ensure your mobile phone is turned off/or on silent during any sessions you attend.

Looking out for each other

Victorian Aboriginal Communities’ Gambling Awareness Program

Pubs and clubs are popular gathering places for families and communities to share a meal, but they often double as gambling venues. This can lead many people to think that gambling is just a normal and fun part of socialising. Even more, they regard gambling as offering hope and the possibility of economic freedom as well as time out from life’s difficulties.

For around 15 per cent of Aboriginal community members, gambling is causing financial harm, physical and mental distress, and arguments in the family.

Four Aboriginal co-operatives – Gippsland & East Gippsland Aboriginal Cooperative, Mallee District Aboriginal Services, Rumbalara Aboriginal Cooperative and the Victorian Aboriginal Health Services – are working with the Victorian Responsible Gambling Foundation to develop a response to gambling harm in Aboriginal communities.

Together they have undertaken research, developed community awareness materials and piloted innovative client services and community engagement activities.

SOUNDSCAPE HUB
DARWIN CONVENTION CENTRE

Listening to Country

The aim of ‘Listening to Country’ is to explore the value of acoustic ecology in promoting cultural connection, maintenance and wellbeing among Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women in prison. In early 2019, an interdisciplinary team of researchers worked with women in Brisbane Women’s Correctional Centre (BWCC) to produce a 1-hour immersive audio work based on field recordings of natural environments (of country) for the purpose of stress relief and relaxation. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women are overrepresented in Australian prisons. The majority are mothers, experiencing the trauma associated with separation from family, community and country.

The Immersive Soundscape Hub will be located in the Exhibition Hall of the conference.

MASTERS OF CEREMONIES

BEN GRAETZ

Ben Graetz is a local Darwin man and is a descendant of the Iwaidja and Malak Malak Clans in the Northern Territory and of Badu Island on the Torres Strait Islands of Australia.

He is interested in all elements of the performing arts and is keen to combine his creative talents to develop work that moves and challenges an audience. He is one of Australia’s finest performers, producer, director and writer, creating exciting work that is innovative and dynamic.

KEVIN KROPINYERI

Kevin is one of Australia's most established and popular Aboriginal comedians with a long list of Australian TV credits. He is a proud Aboriginal man from the Ngarrindjeri Nation of the lower River Murray, Lakes and Coorong region in South Australia.

A high-energy performer, Kevin is sharp, likeable, silly and measured; mixing keen observational standup with joyfully ridiculous physical comedy. His engaging brand of comedy warmly invites both Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal audiences to share his journey, his culture, his life.

Kevin is a regular feature on the mainstream corporate, club and festival circuits and a Melbourne International Comedy Festival Roadshow regular. He is a bona fide star of the Indigenous performing arts scene.
PERFORMERS

ELECTRIC FIELD

Multi-award winning Electric Fields create a striking and haunting merging of living traditional culture with electronic music, bringing moments of breathtaking beauty and power to the stage.

Featuring the rare and beautiful voice of Zaachariaha Fielding, who often sings in his traditional languages of the Anangu people, and the spine-chilling production of Michael Ross - Electric Fields music ranges from soulful pop, to epic-scale electronic works, through to intensely intimate story-songs. They have toured Australia and overseas in a non-stop schedule for the past 14 months, playing in all capital cities multiple times – with invitations taking them to festivals in China, Scotland, Indonesia, New Zealand, Poland, Germany, and Malaysia – and now, UK WOMAD and the massive Sziget Festival in Hungary are on the horizon.

ONE MOB DIFFERENT COUNTRY

One Mob Different Country is a program that has been operating out of the Darwin Correctional Centre (DCC) for approximately 12 years.

The program allows low-security Indigenous prisoners who have demonstrated good behaviour to take part in performing traditional aboriginal dances at events - including community, government and not for profit organisations. The dancers have been given permission from the Elders of the Beswick and Barunga communities to perform certain dances and songs from that region. The name One Mob Different Country refers to the fact that the dancers themselves may come from different communities (different country) but they come together as a group to dance (as one mob). The dancers are not paid to perform. Instead the funds go to the Department of Correctional Services to support this enterprise program and others – for capacity building and creating a positive, sustainable future for those in the program.

RICHARD “TJAPALJARRI” FEJO

Senior Aboriginal Cultural Educator. I am a Larrakia “Salt Water” man and recognised elder of my clan group (Larrakia ‘Fejo’ Clan Group) and a direct descendant of the Larrakia from my father and Grandfather in what culture calls, “Grandfather law”. My skin name is ‘Balang’ from the top end of the NT and ‘Tjapaltjarri’ from the Warramungu (Tennant Creek) region on my mother’s side.
WARREN CORROWA

Warren is a musician and artist living in Darwin in the Northern Territory. Warren plays covers and originals at local corporate functions, charity events, weddings and clubs. Warren’s second EP entitled I was Me, it followed on from his debut EP Arafura Sky in 2013. Produced at Masters Studios in Palmerston, Warren’s new CD is honest and positive with a mixture of music genres from a big band sound on New York through to funk on his moving single I still love you anyhow. Warren has a relaxed view of the world, plays a lot of lawn bowls and likes to laugh lots with wife and friends.

ROCHELLE PITT

Rochelle Pitt is a Butchulla/Kalkadoon and traditional owner of Quandamooka Nation who started singing and performing at a young age in the churches and choirs of Far North Queensland.

Her long journey has forged a powerful voice that celebrates the strength, beauty and love within all of us. In her early twenties, Rochelle had breakout success with her original tracks “Too Deadly My Sister” and “Black to Reality” from her seminal EP Black to Reality, an uplifting and inspirational ode to her First Nation people. The conviction of her live performances leaves audiences breathless, and in recent years Rochelle has found mainstream success as she went from nurse and mother, to star on Australia’s The X factor.

Rochelle’s newest EP, Soul Mumma was released in December 2017, and today she continues to enjoy performances across Australia at music festivals, community events and across the corporate sector. She is also proud ambassador for APRA AMCOS advocating for the rights of Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander singer/songwriters, and passionately supports organisations such as Kidney Health Australia.

THE MERINDAS

Fresh Melbourne based duo, The Merindas, are the synthesis of warrior queen, bringing an on-trend style of rhythmic, expressive and beautiful music dedicated to their cultural heritage.

Blending their sultry tones and energetic stage presence, The Merindas, accompanied by producer Jake Steele, create an atmospheric fusion of Indigenous, electro-tribal pop sounds in an extraordinary presentation of choreographed movement and slay attire.
