We are looking for a chef for a statewide operation promoting the use of native foods as part of an Aboriginal cultural program. Leading the food sourcing, preparation and presentation of the cultural foods, you will be part of a small team presenting Tasmania Aboriginal culture in various locations. Experience in the preparation of native foods will be highly regarded; and further training will be provided. Preparedness to organise and lead, to travel, and to innovate are required. Full or part time. Aboriginal people are particularly encouraged to apply.

For a position description and application form, contact Loretta on (03) 6234 0700 or email payroll@tacinc.com.au

Applications close Friday 13th November 2020 and can emailed to payroll@tacinc.com.au.